

Clothing Donation Processor

Are you passionate about clothing, accessories, fabrics, vintage textiles, or the history of fashion? Do you enjoy: thrift shopping, sewing/altering clothing, knitting, quilting or crafting?

WIN (Victoria Women In Need Community Cooperative) is looking for a creative, hard-working, focused, energetic, team player, with a positive attitude person who believes in what we do. WIN is a non-profit social enterprise that runs 4 thrift stores in Victoria and is self-funded in providing programs for women in Victoria. Our programs support women along their journey between crisis, self-sufficiency and wellness.

If you are someone who wants to make a positive difference in your community, is committed to the environment and reducing waste, is proactive and wants to grow and develop with the organization – then this is the job for you. The successful candidate will become part of a team of strong and dedicated people who work hard, are committed to a shared set of core values and also know how to enjoy their work.

In this position you will:

- Sort clothing donations efficiently and properly into appropriate categories according to WIN standards,
- Keep your work station clean and organized and help in the overall warehouse cleaning,
- Support other team members when necessary,
- Follow all health & safety procedures and policies established by WIN.

Skills and Experience required:

- Interest in and knowledge of clothing, textiles and fashion,
- Knows about and values the work that WIN does in the community – must have an idea of what WIN is all about,
- Able to work well in a team setting, resourceful, positive attitude and a good communicator,
- Able to work in a dusty warehouse environment and perform various repetitive motion tasks,
- Is physically able to lift up to 25lbs,
- Strong knowledge of quality standards for clothing and knowledge of top designer brands are an asset.
